

Call for PhD Student & Postdoc Volunteers: Environmental Sustainability Committee

Dear IZFS Members,

The deadline to join the IZFS Environmental Sustainability Committee has been extended! This new committee aims to make recommendations for strategic changes relating to environmental sustainability throughout IZFS-organized activities. The committee will meet quarterly to identify priorities, initiatives and regulations that will be submitted to the Board for discussion and approval.

If you are a PhD student or postdoc who is interested in joining the IZFS Environmental Sustainability Committee (ESC), we ask that you please submit a statement of 100 words or less outlining your commitment to issues related to the environment and the health of our planet, and why you would like to participate. This statement should also include your name, email address, country of residence and any previous work you have done in regard to environmental issues, if relevant.

All interested volunteers should submit their statement to info@izfs.org by Thursday, January 21.

Thank you for your consideration of volunteering for the Environmental Sustainability Committee and we look forward to working together to making an impact on this important priority.

Sincerely,

Corinne Houart, PhD
IZFS Environmental Sustainability Committee Chair
